HISTORY

THE quiet growth of Lebanon Valley College, now in its eighty-sixth year, has behind it an instructive and stimulating history. It is the history, not of a few brilliant men, but of a people and an ideal. The people were the members of the eastern conferences of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ; the ideal, that of a co-educational institution of learning in which the highest scholarship should be fostered in a Christian atmosphere, and in which religion should subsist without sectarianism. To give form to that ideal, Lebanon Valley College was founded at Annville, Pa., in 1866.

To an outside observer, the history of the College from its opening by President Thomas Rees Vickroy on May 7, 1866, in a building donated by the old Annville Academy and with a student body of forty-nine, might seem to consist merely in increases in the number of students, corresponding increases in the faculty, the purchase of new grounds, and the erection of new buildings. But the inner history was marked by a long and bitter struggle against what often seemed insuperable obstacles, a struggle carried on by heroic men and women on the faculty, among the students, and in the conferences.

There was, to begin with, the old controversy over the wisdom of providing higher education for the Church's young people. In the first year of the College's life a fierce attack upon the educational policy of which it was the fruit came near to putting an end to it at once. But the conference stood loyally by the institution it had created and fought the matter through, though it meant in the end the dropping of valued members from the Church.

Some twenty years later another crisis developed over the question of relocating the College. The debate, which lasted for some years, so seriously divided the friends of the College that in the uncertainty all progress came to a stop. In the emergency Dr. E. Benjamin Bierman was called to the presidency, which he assumed in 1890. On the wave of enthusiasm which he was able to set in motion, the policy of permanency and enlargement was accepted. Buildings were renovated, the student body increased, and when that year the College received the Mary A. Dodge Scholarship Fund of ten thousand dollars—by far the largest single amount that had ever come to the institution—Lebanon Valley College was enabled to close its first quarter century with a complete renewal of the confidence in which it had been founded.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

In 1897, under the presidency of Dr. Roop and with the assistance of old friends and new patrons, the College entered on a fresh period of expansion which saw the erection of the greater part of the present plant. Engle Music Hall, the Carnegie Library, and North Hall were first built. The destruction by fire of the old Administration Building tested the loyalty of college supporters but did not interfere with the program of expansion. The friends of the College rallied to build a new and larger Administration Building, a residence for the men, and a heating plant. Dr. Roop also provided proper quarters and modern equipment for the science departments. His vision and initiative laid the foundation for the success that has since come to the College.

The inauguration of President George Daniel Gossard marks the beginning of the greatest era of prosperity. During his term of office the student body trebled in numbers, the faculty increased not only in numbers but also in attainments, and the elimination of all phases of secondary education raised the institution to true college status. During this same period two great endowment campaigns were completed.

Dr. Gossard was succeeded by President Lynch, who built soundly upon the foundations previously laid. Under his administration the bonds of affection between the College and the Church were strengthened, the active support of the alumni was vastly stimulated, academic standards were raised, the services of the College were extended over a wider area, and, as a visible symbol of his energetic administration, a half-million-dollar gymnasium was added to our physical plant.

After Dr. Lynch's death in 1950 the Trustees saw fit to elevate to the presidency one of the younger members of the faculty, Dr. Fred-eric K. Miller. This decision was greeted with the warmest enthusiasm by both faculty and constituents. Under his leadership courses in general education, projected by Dr. Lynch, have been established, the administrative staff reorganized, and relationships with the local community and alumni strengthened.

As Lebanon Valley College moves forward, she looks back with a feeling of reverence over her past. She sees there the small but proud history of a democratic institution, established by a pious people in the faith that "The truth shall make you free," and carried through dark days by the unswerving devotion and self-sacrifice of a faculty and a constituency poor in the world's goods but rich in faith in the ideals for which the College was founded. Lebanon Valley College is proud of its beginnings; and now, with established policies and a vigorous administration, now strengthened as it is in its economic sinews and assured of still stronger institutional support through the merger, in 1946, of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ and the Evangelical Church, it looks forward in the spirit of its founders to taking rank among the leading educational institutions of the state.

CATALOGUE

A STATEMENT OF AIMS

The motto of Lebanon Valley College, Libertas Per Veritatem, reveals the educational policy of its founders, which remains essentially unchanged. This commits the institution to the purposes of Christian liberal education. That is, it seeks to unite, first of all, Christian ideals and cultural ideals, to develop Christian character familiar with the great books and "the chief rival attitudes towards life" of all times, familiar with the values that underlie all human relationships; persons able to think for themselves on the problems around them. The college aims to assist students in formulating for themselves a satisfying philosophy of life and in linking themselves with the spiritual forces necessary to their personal development and service to humanity.

In harmony with the Christian way of life, student organizations provide centers of religious influence. The faculty and students cooperate in fostering Christian ideals of conduct. The entire college meets weekly in an hour's service of devotion. All students are encouraged to be faithful to the church of their choice. Non-sectarian courses in religion and philosophy stress the importance of the spiritual approach to human problems. The services of several able religious counselors are available to our students at all times.

The college is in harmony with the American way of life. It is our purpose to help our students become well informed, intelligent and responsible citizens who will be socially serviceable in their communities and whose political-mindedness and activities will transcend a narrow partisanship and nationalism by assisting our American Republic to become a vital member of the world community. Appropriate courses prepare students for citizenship in our democracy; various student activities provide training in cooperation and leadership; and the responsibilities of campus government are shared by faculty and students alike.

The college provides opportunities for certain types of professional education. Students are prepared here for careers in business, teaching, and music, into which fields they may enter immediately on graduation. Fully accredited pre-professional courses are offered in the ministry, medicine, and law. Such courses, however, are not pursued in isolation, but are taken in connection with studies in the liberal arts.

ACADEMIC STANDING

Lebanon Valley College is fully accredited by the Department of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania and by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It is a member of the Association of American Colleges and of the American Council on Education, and is on the approved list of the Regents of the University of the State of New York.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Lebanon Valley College is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music. The Conservatory of Music is fully accredited by the Department of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania.

LOCATION

The College is situated in Annville, twenty-one miles east of Harrisburg, in the heart of Lebanon Valley, midway between two ranges of the Allegheny system, the Blue Mountains and the South Mountains. It is on the Benjamin Franklin Highway and the Philadelphia-Reading Railroad, and is quickly reached by train or bus from Harrisburg, Reading, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and New York.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT

The campus, of twelve acres, occupies a high point in the centre of Annville. Around it are grouped seventeen college buildings, including the Administration Building, the Carnegie Library, the Engle Conservatory of Music, Washington Hall, the Men's Dormitory, and four dormitories for women: North Hall, South Hall, West Hall, and Sheridan Hall, and the new Lynch Memorial Physical Education Building.

The Administration Building contains, in addition to the administrative offices: college lecture rooms, science laboratories, biology and chemistry museums.

Accommodations for study are provided on the lower floor of the library. These rooms are under the supervision of a librarian. The Y. M. C. A. lounge is also available to members as study quarters.

Extramural and intramural sports are encouraged, the College providing equipment where needed. The following special provisions have been made for sports: two athletic fields, one of five and the other of sixteen acres, a fine new physical education building, a field for girls' hockey, together with full equipment.

A well-equipped and comfortable Infirmary has been provided, with two graduate nurses in residence.

THE COLLEGE LIBRARY

The present library equipment is being expanded rapidly to meet the growing needs of the College.

The library already contains a good collection of the foundation books needed by the various college departments. It is excellently equipped with works of general reference, such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, atlases, indexes, and year books. The periodicals room is provided with a large and growing list of technical journals and magazines of general interest.

Incoming students are instructed in the use of catalogues and reference books, and in the best methods of working in the library. Books, unless specially reserved for reference work, may be taken out by students. Inter-library loan courtesies enable the librarian to provide student or faculty member with books not found on the college shelves.

The library is open during these hours:

Monday to Friday . . . 8 A.M. to 5 P.M.; 7 P.M. to 9:30 P.M.

Saturday . . . . . 9 A.M. to 12 NOON; 1 P.M. to 3 P.M.

The Hiram Herr Shenk Collection, which includes the well known Heilman Library, provides material for the study of the history of printing, the history of religious denominations, the history and customs of the Pennsylvania Germans, and other items of local interest. It is especially rich in early Pennsylvania imprints, including many of the rare Saur Bibles and a large collection of Ephrata imprints. There are also sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth-century foreign imprints.

The C. B. Montgomery Memorial includes many transcripts and manuscripts dealing principally with the history of the iron industry in this region, early Pennsylvania German settlement, and the Indians of Colonial Pennsylvania. This collection also contains some fine old French prints and the famous American edition of the Boydell Shakespeare prints.

These collections are housed in special rooms. They are open for reference use under staff supervision.

Student Activities

OBJECTIVES

Lebanon Valley College is fully aware of the educational values to be found in extra-curricular activities. Because of this appreciation twenty-nine organizations have been established to carry on a well-rounded program.

Through these varied activities the students on the campus learn to live together in a friendly and democratic manner. Here friendships for life are formed that neither time nor space can destroy. Out of this web of activity the College desires that its students develop standards of behavior which are consistent with our Christian and democratic way of life.

THE RELIGIOUS LIFE

Lebanon Valley was founded as a Christian college and it is still dedicated to that objective. All students are invited and urged to participate in some phase of religious activity.

Chapel

The College Chapel service is held on Tuesday morning at 11:00 a.m., in the College Church. Students are required to attend. Faculty, students, local clergymen from the various denominations as well as other outside speakers carry on this worship service.

Sunday Services

Although the College does not have a morning church service on campus it does urge all students to attend the church of their choice. The College Church, located on the corner of the campus, as well as the other churches of the community extends a warm welcome to all college students who wish to worship with them. A Sunday School class especially for college students is conducted in the College church each Sunday during the school year.

The Student Christian Association

As a part of its program the S.C.A. conducts weekly devotional services, campus-wide Bible studies, special seasonal services as well as intercollegiate exchange religious programs. In addition to numerous other activities the S.C.A. sponsors a number of social events throughout the year and arranges for the Big Sister-Little Sister and the Big Brother-Little Brother program for incoming freshmen.

By virtue of enrolling in the College a student becomes a member of the Student Christian Association. However, all students are urged to become active members by participating in the student-centered religious program.

Religious Emphasis Week

This annual week has been firmly established as one of the highlights of our school year. Outstanding speakers of the country are invited to share their experiences with the student body through classroom lectures, seminars, convocations, and personal interviews.

Religion and Life Lectureship

During the academic year of 1950-51 the Religion and Life Lectureship was inaugurated on the campus for the purpose of deepening our understanding as touching both the current problems that affect human endeavor and, also, the religious resources that are available to meet such courageously. At least one Christian leader of national or international reputation is invited annually to spend a day on campus,—conferring with faculty members and students, conducting seminars, and addressing the entire college community.

Christian Vocation Week

This week is becoming more and more important in the list of religious activities. During this week special emphasis is given to the establishment of the Christian way of life as the basis for all vocations, professions, etc.

Life Work Recruits

Students who make up this group have definitely decided to devote full-time service to the Christian church. They hold regularly scheduled meetings, conduct social action programs at the various hospitals and county homes as well as provide some service to the community.

FACULTY-STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The ultimate responsibility for the things that happen on the College campus rests upon the faculty. However, the faculty has delegated considerable powers to the student governing bodies so that to a large extent students govern themselves. The College encourages student initiative and self-government as a part of the democratic training students should receive in college.

Faculty-Student Council

The over-all coordination of the complex student affairs is under the direction of the Faculty-Student Council. The Council is composed of representatives from each of the recognized organizations on campus plus three faculty members. The purpose of this organization, in addition to coordinating student activities, is to consider all things pertaining to student welfare, to work toward the improvement of the social life of the campus, to serve as the mediator for students and faculty and to suggest and initiate programs for the over-all improvement of the College.

Governing Bodies

Four student governing bodies are functioning on the Lebanon Valley College campus. Each student is a member of one of these groups. The Senate exists for dormitory men, the Congress for day student men, the Council for day student women and the Executive Board for dormitory women. These four governing bodies, with the approval of the faculty, make and administer the rules which set the standard of living for the campus.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Societies

Wholesome social life on the campus is promoted by all the organizations. However, there are four Societies whose sole purpose is to enrich the social program. These four, Philokosmian and Kalozetean Societies for the men, Clonian and Delphian Societies for the women, conduct a rushing season, hold formal dinners, have a share in campus dramatics, and assist in the over-all college social program wherever they are able. Another social club, Knights of the Valley, has received faculty recognition.

Dramatics

Those interested in dramatics, and especially prospective teachers who wish to prepare themselves to coach high school plays, will find experience in the anniversary plays presented by the literary societies and the Wig and Buckle Club. "Cub" membership in the Wig and Buckle is open to all students who desire experience in any branch of dramatics—acting, directing, stage mechanics, etc. Regular membership is limited to those who, on taking part in a college production, show real proficiency.

Journalism

A group of students possessing ability in management and writing is selected annually by the Faculty to bring out a weekly periodical, La Vie Collégienne, devoted to college and student interests. La Vie affords training of a highly specialized kind to those interested in reporting and editorial work. Other opportunities for training in authorship are afforded by The Quittapahilla, the annual year-book published by the Junior Class; and by the Green Blotter Club, whose membership consists of a selected group of writers, of whom four are chosen each year from among the first year students.

CATALOGUE

Athletics

Lebanon Valley College participates in three intercollegiate sports for men (football, basketball, baseball) and two for women (basketball and hockey). This intercollegiate sports program is under the direction of the Director of Athletics for Men and the Director of Athletics for Women.

Two athletic organizations are to be found on campus: the "L" Club for the men who win Varsity letters, and the Women's Athletic Association for the women athletes.

Intramural Activities for Men

Intramural leagues and tournaments are held in the following activities: touch football, basketball, handball (singles and doubles), table tennis, quoits, softball, tennis, volleyball, free throws, squash (singles and doubles), and badminton (singles and doubles).

Women's Athletic Association

All students receiving sufficient number of points in the intramural and intercollegiate sports program become members of this association. The aims of the association are to provide a wide scope of recreational activities, to sponsor Play Days, and to participate in athletic events offered by other colleges and women's athletic organizations.

Intramural Activities and Sports for Women

All women participating in the intramural program will receive points towards individual awards. The activities are: archery, badminton, basketball, bowling, dancing, golf, handball, hiking, hockey, ping pong, riding, shuffleboard, soccer, softball, stunts and tumbling, swimming, tennis, and volleyball. Co-recreational sports are also planned with the men's physical education department.

Intercollegiate Sports for Women

For the student with interest and ability in field hockey and basketball, there are scheduled practice hours at which time the varsity and junior varsity squads work upon techniques, plays, and scrimmages for their scheduled games with other colleges. Lebanon Valley College is a member of the National Association of Physical Education and National and Central Pennsylvania Field Hockey Associations.

Recreational Facilities

The athletic equipment and facilities of the college are available to all men and women on week days (Monday to Friday) from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. for recreational purposes.

Standard Course in First Aid

A class will be arranged, meeting once a week during the second semester. American Red Cross certification will be granted upon completion of requirements. Students engaged in any form of public welfare work, part-time or full-time, are urged to attend this course.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Senior Life Saving and Water Safety

Classes will be conducted, during the second semester, under licensed instructors cooperating with authorized swimming pools. American Red Cross certification will be granted upon completion of requirements.

An Instructor's Course will be offered to those completing the Senior Course. Area representatives from National Headquarters, Washington, will give the final work of this course.

Departmental Clubs

Many departmental clubs have been formed on the campus by groups of students interested in certain fields of investigation. At informal gatherings reports on current topics are presented and discussed, and visiting lecturers are entertained. The following is a list of such clubs: The Biology Club, Chemistry Club, French Club, Future Teachers of America, German Club, Green Blotter Club, Life Work Recruits, Political Science Club, Psychology Club, Wig and Buckle Club, and Pi Gamma Mu, social science honor society.

Music

Those who play musical instruments or who sing are eligible for membership in the musical organizations maintained on the campus, such as the L. V. C. Band, Symphony Orchestra, College Orchestra, Glee Club, and College Chorus. For detailed announcement concerning these organizations turn to page 115 of this catalogue.

Phi Alpha Epsilon

This honorary scholarship society gives recognition to those who have achieved a high scholarship record during their college course. Those who have attained an average of 88 per cent during the first three and a half years of their college course and are of good moral character are eligible for membership.

Counseling and Placement

Lebanon Valley College recognizes as part of its responsibility to its students the need for providing sound educational, vocational, and personal counseling. These services are under the supervision of trained psychologists. Measures of interest, ability, aptitude and personality, in addition to other counseling techniques, are utilized in an effort to help each student come to a fuller realization of his total personality. An important part of the counseling program consists of a series of lectures and discussions conducted as a non-credit course for freshmen. See listing below.

In addition to administering tests during freshman week, Lebanon Valley College acts as an examining center for nationally administered projects such as the Graduate Record Examination, and the National Sophomore Testing Program.

Students who have difficulty in the reading area are encouraged to make use of the remedial reading program which is designed to overcome reading and study-habit problems.

The College maintains a placement bureau which aids students in procuring part-time employment while in College, and positions upon graduation. An up-to-date file is maintained which contains information about positions, Civil Service opportunities and examinations, various companies and institutions, entrance to professional schools, and assistantships.

Freshman Orientation.

One hour. First semester. No credit.

This is a required course consisting of lectures and discussions on problems which confront the student in his transition from high school and home to the college environment.

---

Admission

---

Students are admitted to Lebanon Valley College on the basis of scholarly achievement, character, personality, and general ability to make profitable use of the college experience. Although most of the new students each year are admitted as freshmen, those applicants whose work at other colleges has been of acceptable quality may be admitted with advanced standing.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

All communications concerning admission should be addressed to the Director of Admissions, Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pennsylvania.

The required forms for application will be furnished on request. Each application should be accompanied by a fee of five dollars, which is refunded if the application is not approved. A transcript of the high school record, on a form provided for that purpose, should be sent by the principal directly to the college.

A student applying for advanced standing must present a certificate of honorable dismissal from the college attended previously and an official transcript of his scholastic record in that institution.

All new students are required to present a physician's certificate showing that they have been successfully vaccinated within a period of seven years before their entrance to college.

ADMISSION TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS

In selecting the members of the freshman class, the following factors apply:

1. The applicant's secondary school record.
2. Recommendations by the principal, teachers, and other responsible persons as to the applicant's special abilities, integrity, sense of responsibility, seriousness of purpose, initiative, self-reliance, and concern for others.
3. A personal interview, arranged by special appointment, whenever possible.
4. The results of entrance examinations which may be required when the applicant ranks in the lower half of his class in high school.

CONSERVATORY ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

It is recommended that applicants for the Conservatory present units which conform to the general requirements for admission. However, if they have fewer units in some subjects than the recommended total and are strong in their major field, their applications will be considered.

CATALOGUE

For specific entrance requirements to the Conservatory of Music, consult page 107 of this catalogue.

ADMISSION UNITS

All candidates must offer sixteen units of entrance credit, acquired by graduation from an accredited senior high school or equivalency certificate acquired through examination. Admission may be granted on the basis of GED tests, provided that the candidate receives a grade of 50 or better on each of the tests.

Units acceptable for admission are from the following groups of subjects: English, foreign languages (ancient or modern), mathematics (algebra, geometry, trigonometry), sciences (biology, chemistry, physics, general science), social studies (civics, history, etc.). Other subjects may be accepted at the discretion of the Committee on Admissions.

Entrance Requirements

English .....	4	units
*Foreign Language (in one language) .....	2	"
Mathematics .....	2	"
Science (laboratory) .....	1	"
Social studies .....	1	"
Electives .....	6	"
		<hr/>
Total required .....	16	"

RECOMMENDATIONS

Mathematics and Science

Candidates planning to go on with science should include at least  $1\frac{1}{2}$  units of algebra and a unit of plane geometry. Those who plan to proceed with the mathematical sciences (mathematics and physics) should include 2 units of algebra, a unit of plane geometry, and, wherever possible, solid geometry. It is desirable that science majors present 1 unit in each of biology, chemistry, and physics.

Advanced Standing

A candidate who desires advanced standing through credits earned at another institution must submit an official transcript of his record for evaluation. This transcript should be sent directly to the Director of Admissions, Lebanon Valley College by the Registrar, at the candidate's request.

Credits from an approved institution will be recognized, provided

* If an applicant (Conservatory excepted) cannot present the two units of foreign language, he will be required to take a minimum of two years of some one language in college. His credits for this work will be counted toward graduation requirements.

** A deficiency in algebra or plane geometry must be made up before sophomore classification is granted.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

they carry a grade of "C" or better and that the work parallels courses listed in the college catalogue.

Subject to the conditions listed in the preceding paragraph, Lebanon Valley College will recognize for transfer credit a total of 17 hours of USAFI course work, provided that the work was done under actual classroom supervision. College credit is not granted on the basis of GED tests.

REGISTRATION

Registration is the process of class assignment and is completed over the signatures of the adviser and the Registrar. No student will be admitted to any class without the proper registration card, which is sent direct to the department of instruction from the Registrar's office.

The registration days for the collegiate year 1953-1954 are as follows: First semester, September 18; second semester, December 7-11.

Pre-registration

To expedite the opening of the school year in September, all students of 1952-1953 will be registered May 11-15 for the ensuing year's work. Changes in registration will be made in September without charge.

Late Registration

Students registering later than the days specified will be charged a fee of one dollar. Students desiring to register later than one week after the opening of the semester will be admitted only by special permission.

Change of Registration

When change of registration is advisable or necessary such changes must be made in the same way as the original registration, namely, over the signature of the adviser. Such changes will not be permitted after the close of the second week of the session.

Classification

Classification will be made on the following credit basis: freshman standing, 16 units; sophomore standing, 30 semester hours and 30 quality points; junior standing, 65 semester hours and 65 quality points; senior standing, 95 semester hours and 95 quality points.

LIMIT OF HOURS

Every full time resident student must take at least twelve hours of work as catalogued. Seventeen hours of academic work is the maximum permitted.

CATALOGUE

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

Two days are set apart at the beginning of the college year for the purpose of helping new students to become familiar with their academic surroundings. There are lectures, placement tests, hikes, and informal meetings with members of the faculty in their homes. New students are made acquainted with the College traditions, and are advised concerning methods of study and the use of the library. All incoming students are required to take a thorough physical examination during this period.

Freshmen are also required to attend, during the first semester, a series of lectures and discussions on campus problems. See page 31.

ADVISERS

The student will find little opportunity for specialization in the first year at college, but before registering for the second year, or the third year, at the latest, he must choose a department in which to pursue work of special concentration. This department shall be known as his major. The head of the department in which a student has elected to major becomes the adviser for that student. The adviser's approval is necessary before a student may register for or enter upon any course of study, or discontinue any work. He is the medium of communication between the Faculty and the students majoring in his department, and stands to his students in the relation of a friendly counselor.

Administrative Regulations

The rules of the College are as few and simple as the proper regulation of a community of young men and women will permit. The dormitories are under the immediate control of the Dean of Students, Dean of Women, and the student government bodies. Possession of alcoholic beverages on the campus will be construed as a major offense. It is likewise a major offense for any student to appear on the campus while under the influence of liquor.

Class Absences Each professor shall determine for each class and for each student when a student's repeated or continued absence from class has jeopardized his class standing with respect to that subject. The professor will then notify the Dean of the College, who will counsel with the student regarding his work. If after this the student continues to be absent, the professor may, at his discretion, drop the student's name from his class roll, and the student may reinstate himself only by taking an examination or by giving other evidence, as the professor sees fit to demand, of his ability to continue the course. The professor is free to say that a student who maintains an A average in that course may have unlimited cuts, and he may also say that a student who is doing below C work will be allowed no cuts at all.

A fee of three dollars will be charged for each examination for reinstatement.

Chapel Attendance Chapel service is conducted once a week. Attendance is required of all full-time students. Three absences are allowed during a semester. For each additional unexcused absence one hour will be added to the required hours for graduation.

Hazing Hazing is strictly prohibited. Any infringement by members of the other classes upon the personal rights of freshmen, or any discrimination against freshmen because of their class standing, is interpreted as hazing.

Enrollment and Credits The college reserves the right to withdraw or discontinue any course for which an insufficient number of students have registered. In such an event, no fee will be charged for transfer to another course.

A student enrolled for a degree at Lebanon Valley College may not carry courses concurrently at any other institution without the consent of his/her major adviser. Neither may a regular student carry courses concurrently in the Evening or Extension Division of the college without permission of the major adviser.

A student registered in Lebanon Valley College may not obtain credit for courses taken in other colleges during the summer unless such courses have prior approval by the (major adviser) head of the department concerned.

Transcripts Each student, former student, or graduate is entitled to one transcript without charge. For each copy after the first, a fee of one dollar is charged.

REGULATIONS REGARDING STUDENTS ON ACADEMIC PROBATION

1. A student who does not pass, with a C average, at least 60% of his academic load per semester will be placed on probation.

2. A student may, upon action of the Academic Progress Committee, be put on academic probation, whenever the character of the work is such as to indicate that the student is in danger of failing to complete the work necessary for graduation.

3. A student placed on probation, who fails to pass all of his work and who does not have a C average for the semester, will be subject to suspension from the college for the semester following, or subject to dismissal. In case of suspension he may be permitted to apply for readmission.

4. A student placed on academic probation will be notified by the Dean and informed of the college regulations governing probationers. Thereafter, infraction of these regulations renders the student liable to dismissal.

5. When a student is put on probation, faculty and parents will be notified by the Dean of the College. The Academic Progress Committee, upon advice of the Dean, may terminate the period of probation of any student.

6. Students on probation are required to regulate their work and their time so as to make a most decided effort to bring their work up to the required standard.

7. The conduct of the probationer is governed by the following rules:

a. No unexcused class absences will be permitted.

b. Any office or activity in any college organization that involves such excessive expenditure of time as to jeopardize the successful prosecution of academic work must be given up.

Expenses

The rates on the following pages apply to the college year 1953-1954.

MATRICULATION

A Matriculation Fee of five dollars must be paid by all full-time students who are entering the College for the first time or applying for a degree. This fee should accompany the application for admission. If a student's application is not accepted, the fee will be returned.

All students not enrolled in regular College or Conservatory courses will be required to pay a matriculation fee of one dollar, once in each school year.

TUITION AND STUDENT ACTIVITIES FEES

An annual charge of $485 for tuition (entitling the student to seventeen hours per semester in the College and Conservatory) and $35 for a student activities fee will be made for all students in regular courses.

Fifteen dollars will be charged for each additional semester hour of work taken in regular classes when the total number of hours for the year exceeds seventeen per semester. Students who enroll for fewer than twelve hours in regular courses will be charged at the rate of $20 per semester hour.

The payment of the annual student activities fee entitles the student to the following privileges: the use of the library, gymnasium, and athletic field; admission to athletic games on the home grounds or in Lebanon; subscription to La Vie Collégienne and the College year book; membership in the Christian Associations and student government associations; use of the Infirmary by residence students; and use of day-student quarters by day-students.

LABORATORY FEES

To cover the cost of materials used in the laboratories, the following fees are charged:

There will be no refund of laboratory fees.

A deposit of $2 is required of each student in the Biological Laboratory as a guarantee for the return of keys and apparatus. This amount, less any deductions for loss or breakage, is refunded when keys and apparatus are returned.

Breakage deposit for chemistry courses: Chemistry 10, $5; Chemistry 11, $5; Chemistry 21, $5; Chemistry 22, $10; Chemistry 30, $5; Chemistry 31, $5; Chemistry 40, $5; Chemistry 41, $10; Chemistry 44, $10; Chemistry 35, $10; Chemistry 43, $6. All breakage in the chemical laboratory will be charged against the individual student. Any balance of the above deposits due the student at the completion of his course will be returned or credited to his account, and any deficit beyond his deposit will be charged to his regular college account.

All deposits shall be paid at the Treasurer's office.

BOARDING

The domestic department is in charge of a skilled and competent dietitian. Plain, substantial, and palatable food especially adapted to the needs of the student is provided. The kitchen is furnished with modern equipment, and all food is prepared in the most sanitary manner.

The boarding rate for the college year 1953-1954 is $350. The College reserves the right to increase this amount at any time during the year in case of unusual change in food prices. These rates do not include Christmas and Easter vacations.

Students who leave college during the term will be required to pay board at the rate of $12.00 per week during their stay in college.

All students who do not room and board at their homes are required to room and board in the College unless special permission is obtained to do otherwise. Students refusing to comply with this regulation forfeit their privileges as students in the College.

ROOM RENT

Room rent varies from $90 to $120 except when double rooms are assigned to only one student, in which case the occupant will pay the regular rent for two. Rooms are reserved only for those who make an advance payment of $35. This amount will be credited to the semester account, and will not be returned except in case of emergency. There is no refund on room rentals.

Occupants of a room are held responsible for all breakage and loss of furniture or any loss whatever for which the students are responsible. A breakage fee of $10 is required of each student rooming in the Men's Dormitory. All or part of this may be returned at the end of the year. A dormitory service fee of $10 is charged men in the Dormitory. A breakage fee of $5 is required for each student in the women's dormitories. After deducting the cost of repairing any damage to the room, estimated at the end of the college year, the balance will be returned or applied on account.

Each room in the Men's Dormitory is furnished with a chiffonier and book case, and for each occupant a cot, a mattress, one chair, and a study table. Students must provide their own bedding, rugs, towels, soap, and all other furnishings.

The Men's Dormitory is under the supervision of a member of the staff who occupies a suite of rooms in the building.

A reception room on the first floor is provided for the accommodation of parents and other visitors.

Each room in the women's dormitories is furnished with a rug, bed, mattress, chair, dresser, book-case, and study table. All other desired furnishings must be supplied by the student.

All students to whom rooms are assigned are strictly forbidden to sublet their rooms to day students or to others for a money or any other consideration.

The College reserves the right to close all the dormitories during vacations.

A day-students' room for women is provided in South Hall, for men in Washington Hall, and for music students in the Conservatory.

CATALOGUE

FEE FOR PRACTICE TEACHING

A fee of $40.00 is charged to all students in the College and the Conservatory who do practice teaching.

GRADUATION FEE

Sixty days prior to Commencement, candidates for degrees are required to pay the following fees:

Students graduating in the College, $20; students graduating in Music, $20.

In addition, students applying for degrees who have not been previously regularly matriculated in the College, are required to pay an initial registration fee of $5.

PAYMENT OF FEES

An advance payment must be made by each student to provide for registration. Students who reserve rooms in the dormitories are required to make a payment of $35.00 by August 1 to secure the reservation. After this date rooms not so secured may be assigned to other applicants. All other students in order to be certain of admission to the College must make this advance payment of $35.00 by August 1. Registration is not completed and students will not be admitted to class until this payment is made. No refund will be made on this fee.

Bills for regular college expenses, including tuition, laboratory fees, boarding, and room rent, are issued at the beginning of each semester, covering the expenses for the full semester. These bills are due on the day of registration. Unless the deferred payment plan is used a minimum cash payment of $100 is required on all bills on or before registration, the balance to be paid in full within ten days thereafter. Otherwise, the student will be required to withdraw from college.

Satisfactory settlement of all bills and fees is required before an honorable dismissal may be granted or grades recorded.

Students who are candidates for diplomas must make full settlement entirely satisfactory to the Finance Committee before diplomas will be sealed and delivered.

DEFERRED PAYMENTS—THE TUITION PLAN

Since some parents may prefer to pay tuition and other fees in equal monthly installments during the academic year, we are glad to offer this convenience under the Tuition Plan. The cost is 4% greater than when payment is made in cash at the beginning of each semester.

Parents who prefer to pay in installments need merely notify us and we shall send them the necessary forms promptly. Application should be made within the ten days following the opening of the semester.

ABSENCE AND SICKNESS

When students retain their class standing during absence from college because of sickness or for any other reason, no rebate or refund will be allowed on tuition. In case of suspension for any reason there will be no rebate.

In case of sickness which occasions loss of class standing, or in case of withdrawal for any other cause, a reasonable refund will be allowed on tuition, and charges made according to the following schedule:

Tuition Refund Schedule

Period of Student's Actual Attendance in College from Date of Enrollment	% Charge on Tuition
One week or less .....	20%
Between one and two weeks .....	20%
Between two and three weeks .....	40%
Between three and four weeks .....	60%
Between four and five weeks .....	80%
Over five weeks .....	100%

No refunds will be allowed on room rents.

AID TO STUDENTS

Help is extended annually to a limited number of students, but only to those pursuing full courses in the College or Conservatory. This help is given in the form of scholarships, waiterships, janitorships, tutorships, or library assistantships. Such help is given on the explicit condition that the recipient comply with all the rules and regulations of the College and give evidence of real need.

A student forfeits the privilege of a scholarship or other help from the College when he fails to maintain satisfactory scholastic standing, when in any way he refuses to cooperate with the College, or when he disregards the regulations of the institution.

Students rooming in dormitories and boarding at the college dining hall will be given preference when work of various kinds is assigned.

SCHOLARSHIPS, TRUST FUNDS, AND REBATES

The College offers a limited number of tuition scholarships upon recommendation of the Scholarship Committee. It also makes some loans.

Competitive scholarship examinations are conducted at the College each year. All high school seniors in the upper third of their respective classes are eligible to participate. Information may be procured by writing to the Office of Admissions.

Students preparing for the ministry in the Evangelical United Brethren Church will, if living at the College, be entitled to $190.00 reduction in tuition, provided they maintain satisfactory academic standing. Day students, preparing for the ministry, will be entitled to $95.00 reduction, under the same conditions.

Ministers' children are entitled to an annual reduction of $80.00 on full tuition, in either the College or the Conservatory, unless they are day students, in which case they are entitled to a reduction of $40.00. Scholarships do not cover the tuition for extra work taken.

Scholarships which are won in the Competitive Examinations, or granted for high scholastic standing, can be retained only if the student maintains an average of 80 per cent or higher.

Scholarships are not applied to accounts in Summer School or Extension School.

No scholarship or rebate will be granted for a period shorter than a semester.

Requirements for Degree

The degrees conferred in course are Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), Bachelor of Science (B.S.), Bachelor of Science in Chemistry (B.S. in Chemistry), Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S. in Nursing), and Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology (B.S. in Medical Technology).

The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred upon students who complete the requirements for graduation in the following areas: English, French, German, Greek, History, Mathematics, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Sociology, or Spanish.

The degree of Bachelor of Science will be conferred upon students who complete the requirements in the following areas: Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, Economics and Business, Music Education.

The professional degrees of Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology will be conferred upon students who complete the requirements in the respective professional areas.

For detailed information see pages 49, 57, 56.

Semester Hours      The requirements for degrees are stated in "semester hours credit" which are based upon the satisfactory completion of courses of instruction. One semester hour credit is given for each class hour a week through a semester. Not less than two hours of laboratory work a week through a semester will be required for a semester hour credit. A semester is a term of approximately seventeen weeks or one-half of the college session.

Candidates for degrees must obtain a minimum of 126 semester hours credit in academic work, and in addition 4 semester hours in physical education, making a total of 130 semester hours. It is understood, however, that a student who has a physical disability may be excused (on recommendation from the college physician) from the requirement in physical education without being obliged to substitute other work in order to bring his total of semester hours from 126 to 130.

Major and Minor      As a part of this total requirement, every candidate must present at least 24 semester hours in one department (to be known as his Major), and at least 18 semester hours in another department (to be known as his Minor). Both Major and Minor may be selected before registration for the sophomore year, the Minor to be suitably related to the Major, and chosen with the advice and approval of the Head of the major department.

Residence Requirement Degrees will be conferred only upon candidates who have earned at least 30 semester hours work in residence.

Quality Points Candidates for degrees must also obtain a minimum of 130 quality points, computed in accordance with the grading system indicated below.

System of Grading and Quality Points The work of a student in each subject is graded A, B, C, D, or F. These grades have the following meanings: A (90-100%), distinguished; B (80-89%), good; C (70-79%), average; D (60-69%), passing, lowest sustained grade; F, failing, student must drop or repeat the subject. If a student fails twice in a subject, he may not register for it a third time. For each semester hour credit in a course in which a student is graded A he receives 3 quality points; B, 2; and C, 1. D carries credit but no quality points. A grade of F shall entail a loss of 1 quality point per credit hour. In addition to the above grades the symbols "I", "W", "WP", and "WF" are used on grade reports and in the college records. "I" indicates that the work is incomplete (that the student has postponed, with the consent of the instructor, certain required work), but otherwise satisfactory. This work must be completed within the semester following. If not completed the following semester the "I" is converted to an F.

Withdrawal from Courses W indicates withdrawal from a course any time within the first six weeks of a semester. If, however, a student withdraws after six weeks, the symbol WP will be entered if his work is satisfactory, and WF if his work is unsatisfactory. The mark WP will be considered as without prejudice to the student's standing, but the mark WF will be counted as a grade of 50 in averaging the grades.

Transfer Students Students transferring from other institutions must secure an average grade of C or better (a quality point average of at least 1.0) in work taken at Lebanon Valley College.

COOPERATIVE FORESTRY PROGRAM

ADVISER: DR. LIGHT

Lebanon Valley College offers a program in forestry in cooperation with the School of Forestry of Duke University. Upon successful completion of a five-year coordinated course of study, a student will have earned the Bachelor of Science degree from Lebanon Valley College and the professional degree of Master of Forestry from the Duke School of Forestry.

A student electing to pursue this curriculum spends the first three years in residence at Lebanon Valley College. Here he obtains a sound education in the humanities and other liberal arts in addition to the sciences basic to forestry. Such an education does more than prepare a student for his later professional training; it offers him an opportunity to develop friendships with students in many fields, expand his interests, broaden his perspective, and fully develop his potentialities.

The student devotes the last two years of his program to the professional forestry curriculum of his choice at the Duke School of Forestry. Since Duke offers forestry courses only to senior and graduate students, the student from Lebanon Valley finds himself associating with a mature student body. He is well prepared for further personal and professional development.

Candidates for the forestry program should indicate to the Director of Admissions of Lebanon Valley College that they wish to apply for the Liberal Arts-Forestry Curriculum. Admission to the College is granted under the same conditions as for other curricula. At the end of the first semester of the third year the College will recommend qualified students for admission to the Duke School of Forestry. Each recommendation will be accompanied by the student's application for admission and a transcript of his academic record at Lebanon Valley College. No application need be made to the School of Forestry prior to this time.

The following course of study indicates the nature of work to be taken under this program. Each student selects one of the curricula indicated for the fifth year.

PRE-MEDICAL COURSE

HEALING ARTS ADVISORY COMMITTEE: GRIMM, NEIDIG, EHRHART, LIGHT

The following courses of study are outlined for those desiring to qualify for admission to medical schools.

The work offered for a two-year course includes the subjects specified by the Bureau of Professional Education of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction as the minimum requirement for admission to any medical school.

The four-year course includes all of the subjects required for admission to the medical schools which require a collegiate degree for admission and fulfills the requirements of the College for the Bachelor of Science degree. The student ranks as a Pre-Medical Major.

The student should maintain a standard of not less than "B" in required courses in order to obtain the recommendation of the college for admission to a medical school.

In addition to the courses outlined the student is advised to read the following:

Locy, Biology and its Makers; Stieglitz, Chemistry in Medicine; Mendel, Nutrition: The Chemistry of Life; Garrison, History of Medicine.

Current Biological Literature including Journals of Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology.

Bio-Chemistry by such authors as Bodansky, Hawk, Gortner.

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY CURRICULUM

HEALING ARTS ADVISORY COMMITTEE: GRIMM, NEIDIG, EHRHART, LIGHT

Admissions

Applicants for admission to the curriculum must meet the admission requirements of Lebanon Valley College as stated on pages 32 and 33 of the current catalogue. At the same time they shall secure approval by the School for Medical Technologists for the status of pre-registered students, to be admitted on the successful completion of the academic part of the curriculum at the College. The School for Medical Technologists shall be the final judge of a student's qualifications to pursue its curriculum.

Curriculum

The first three years will be spent at Lebanon Valley College in pursuit of the following courses of study which include all the general requirements for graduation and certain courses especially suitable as preparation for the study of medical technology:

Following the completion of this curriculum the student will spend twelve (12) months at the Harrisburg Hospital School for Medical Technologists in pursuit of its regular curriculum as prescribed by The American Society of Clinical Pathologists. On the successful completion of both phases of the curriculum the student will be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology by Lebanon Valley College.

NURSING

HEALING ARTS ADVISORY COMMITTEE: GRIMM, NEIDIG, EHRHART, LIGHT

The five-year Nursing Plan offers to young women intending to enter the field of nursing an opportunity to obtain a liberal arts education in connection with their nurse's education.

Lebanon Valley College has entered into an affiliation with the Harrisburg Hospital School of Nursing, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, in order to establish a five-year curriculum in nursing.

TEACHING

ADVISER: PROFESSOR MCKLVEEN

The main purpose of the instruction in the Education Department of Lebanon Valley College is to train future teachers to become efficient, conscientious, capable members of a growing and responsible profession.

Course requirements are fulfilled to meet state certification. The offerings selected have been chosen to cover a sufficient area to develop a well rounded curriculum for teacher training without undue over-lapping of materials presented.

Certification Requirements

Certification requirements in the various states make it imperative that prospective teachers begin planning their work during the freshman year in college. The planning should take into consideration two factors:

- A. Requirements in professional courses.
- B. Requirements in academic subject matter.

Requirements in Professional Courses

The following professional courses are designed to meet the Pennsylvania requirements for certification:

Education 20—Introduction to Education . . . .	3 semester hours
Psychology 23—Educational Psychology . . . . .	3 semester hours
(Prerequisite: General Psychology)
Education 40—Student Teaching . . . . .	6 semester hours
Electives in education courses . . . . .	6 semester hours

The electives may be selected from the following courses:

- Education 30—Educational Measurements
- Education 32—Educational Foundations
- Education 41—Guidance for the Secondary School
- Education 45—Visual and Sensory Techniques
- Education 47—Principles and Techniques of Secondary School Teaching
- Education 49—Special Methods

Public Speaking (English 22) is a college requirement for all students entering the teaching field.

For all Provisional College Certificates, a basic course in the History of the United States and Pennsylvania is now required.

The minimum requirement of six semester hours of student teaching is based upon not less than 180 hours of actual teaching including the necessary observation, participation and conferences under approved supervision in a laboratory or cooperative school.

The Provisional College Certificate entitles the holder to teach for three years in any public secondary school of the Commonwealth the subjects indicated on its face. The subjects placed on the certificate will be those in which a student has earned twenty-four or eighteen college credits. This is, of course, work completed in the academic field beyond the educational requirements.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Any student desiring information concerning the requirements to teach in other states should contact the Office of Education.

Requirements in Academic Subject Matter

A. Students can be certified in the following secondary school subjects: English, French, German, Latin, Spanish, History, Social Science, Mathematics, Physical Science, and Biological Science. At least eighteen hours of credit in the various fields are required for certification to teach in those fields.

B. The following programs are designed to meet Pennsylvania requirements in the respective subject matter fields:

1. English: 10a-10b, 30a or 30b, 21a, Humanities 20.
2. French: 10, 20, six hours advanced work.
3. German: 10, 20, six hours advanced work.
4. Latin: 11, 20, 42, two hours elective.
5. Spanish: 10, 20, six hours advanced work.
6. Mathematics: 20, 33, 34, four hours elective.
7. History 10, 24a-24b, six hours of electives.
8. Social Studies: Teachers certified in Social Studies can teach history and social science. Students will be recommended for certification in this field upon satisfactory completion of History 24a-24b, six hours of European history, Economics 20, Political Science 10a-10b, and Social Studies 30.
9. Physical Sciences: Chemistry 10, Physics 20 and 21, two hours elective in either field.
10. Biological Sciences: Biology 18, 28a-28b, 38a-38b.
11. Science: Teachers certified in science can teach physical and biological sciences. Students will be recommended for certification in this field upon satisfactory completion of Biology 18, Physics 20 and 21, Chemistry 10.

The combination fields in science and social studies are concessions to students experiencing difficulties in meeting all requirements for certification in the separate fields covered by these terms. At no time should the student seek certification in either social studies or science unless he is meeting all requirements in one of the divisions included in these fields, i.e., history or social science in the case of social studies, and biological or physical sciences in the case of science. Furthermore, social studies or science should be added only as a third field in which certification is being sought.

Scholastic Record of Prospective Teachers

Students whose college work falls below the median grade of the College are strongly advised not to consider education as a profession. The College reserves the right to refuse such persons admission into education courses.

Placement Bureau

In order to give students the benefit of calls that are received for teachers and to render greater assistance in finding employment, the College provides for a Placement Bureau to keep on file records of students with their credentials for those who desire it. For registration with the bureau a fee of two dollars is charged. The services of the Placement Bureau will be available to graduates for one year after date of graduation by virtue of this fee. If any graduate desires further services an additional fee of two dollars is charged for each year.

Future Teachers of America

As an integral part of the Education Department, the George D. Gossard Chapter of the Lebanon Valley College Future Teachers of America holds monthly meetings throughout the year.

The purpose of this organization is to enrich the offerings of the Education Department and to acquaint students with the practical problems of teaching.

The college chapter is affiliated with the National Education Association and the Pennsylvania State Educational Association.

Any student on the college campus interested in the teaching profession is eligible to join.

Integrated Studies

1. Statement of Aims

In harmony with a widespread trend among colleges, Lebanon Valley College is currently engaged in revising its program of studies. The key word for an understanding of this trend is integration—the subject matter of education so organized and so presented that the student is constantly aware of the interrelatedness of all knowledge. The ideal of integrated studies would be to construct for the student a broad highway over which he might travel in his pilgrimage toward his goal—a single avenue rather than the many little parallel paths over which he has formerly traveled under the departmentalized system of education. For obvious practical and administrative reasons, however, that ideal has not yet been attained in any college. Lebanon Valley College is neither ready, on the one hand, to abolish departments, nor, on the other hand to offer a single course that will embrace all knowledge. But we have attempted to organize the fundamental knowledge of a college education into three main courses: one embracing the sciences, one arts and letters, and a third the social studies. Plans to interrelate these three in terms of teaching techniques are still in the process of formulation.

The program of integrated studies, as offered at Lebanon Valley College, is designed to give the student an adequate conception of the nature of the physical universe in which he lives, a knowledge of the workings of physical laws, and some grasp of what is meant by the scientific method. It should awake in the student an intelligent interest in personal, family, social, and civic problems. It will not indeed provide ready-made answers to these problems, but it will give the student a better understanding of the problems, and an increased awareness of the historical backgrounds that brought these problems into being. It will present in an orderly fashion various rival views of life in the belief that the student, once aware of their differences, may intelligently shape his own attitudes. In addition to all this, it will provide the student with an enhanced appreciation of the highest reaches of the human spirit as found in literature, art, and music. Behind our plan of integrated studies is the fundamental premise that our students will go into the world not only to follow chosen professions, but also to be men and women: human beings confronted daily with the wide variety of choices in thinking and action which modern living entails. It is to prepare the student to live with himself and with others that we present these courses.

CATALOGUE

We wish to make it explicit at this point that we do not oppose specialization. For the student who has chosen his profession, integrated courses will provide the background on which later specialization may be built. In addition, by showing how his chosen subject fits into the pattern of the larger whole, it will make his specialization more meaningful and therefore more effective. For the student who is uncertain about his plans for the future, integrated studies will provide opportunity to explore wide areas of knowledge and experience, and will aid him in discovering his own aptitudes and interests. It will equip all students better to assume their responsibilities as members of their local communities and citizens of a democracy.

To achieve this we propose three fundamental courses to be required of all students:

The Sciences—a course which will acquaint the student with the nature of the physical universe. In preparation; not given 1953-1954.

The Humanities—a course which will familiarize him, intellectually and emotionally, with his cultural heritage.

The Social Studies—a course which will provide him with the proper orientation with reference to the human relationships of the world in which he lives.

2. Divisional Organization

In order to provide these courses of integrated studies, cutting as they do across departmental lines, and in order to attain greater efficiency in administration, divisional organization has been initiated. Departments of study which fall within related areas of learning are organized into Divisions, each with a Director in charge. Three Divisions have been thus organized, and further extension of the system is contemplated.

The Humanities Division comprises the Departments of English, French, Spanish, German, Russian, Greek, Latin, Philosophy, and (as a Department in the College) Music.—Professor Struble, Director.

The Social Studies Division comprises the Department of History, Political Science, and Sociology.—Professor Laughlin, Director.

The Division of Physical Education, Health, and Athletics—Required Physical Education and Hygiene, Teacher-Education, Intramural Sports, and Intercollegiate Athletics.

Each course in integrated studies is administered by the appropriate Division and differs from departmental courses in that it is not confined to one branch of knowledge, but incorporates subject matter from various Departments within the Division. By this means the student is enabled to coordinate his knowledge, one branch with another, the various branches with his chosen specialty, and with the problems of living in a complex environment.

Courses of Study by Divisions

Humanities 20. Man's Quest for Values as Recorded in the Literature of the Western World.

Mr. Struble, Mr. Stonecipher, and Mr. Ehrhart

Four hours. Throughout the year. Required of all sophomores.

A detailed study will be made of significant material from the ancient and modern literatures of continental Europe, and from English and American literature. The aim will be to trace the developing mind of man and the growth of his sense of aesthetic and ethical values. Attempts will be made, throughout the course, to show how developments in literature are paralleled by similar developments in art and music. To this end free use will be made of picture exhibits, slides, motion pictures, and phonograph records. One aim of the course will be to provide the student with genuinely aesthetic experiences.

Social Studies 30.

Mrs. Laughlin and Miss Brumbaugh

Four hours. Throughout the year. Required of all juniors.

This course is designed to provide the student with an understanding of the origins and operation of contemporary society. It will offer training helpful in making thoughtful appraisals of social situations, and it will integrate subject matter from the fields of history, economics, political science, and sociology by a study of the historical development and current functioning of institutions in these areas. Materials used will include library references, visual aids, and field trips.

Political Science 32. Contemporary World Affairs.

Mr. Fehr

Two hours. First or second semester.

The purpose of this one-semester course is to acquaint students with current developments in the field of public affairs, literature, science, religion, music, drama, art. Students are instructed in procedures useful in evaluation of material received through various media of communication, such as publications, motion pictures, radio. Instructors from the departments concerned cooperate in teaching the course. No prerequisite required.

Courses of Study by Departments

Note: If no year is indicated after a course, it is understood that the course is offered every year. In regard to courses that run throughout the year, there are two types of listings. If either semester may be taken as a separate unit, without the other semester, the course will be listed as a and b. For example, a student may take English 21b even though he has not had English 21a and does not expect to take it. But if no letter is indicated with the course number, the entire year's work must be taken if credit is expected, and a student may not enter the course at midyear.

BIOLOGY

PROFESSOR LIGHT, ASSISTANT PROFESSORS BOLLINGER
AND SNYDER AND ASSISTANTS

The work outlined in the following courses in biology is intended to develop an appreciation of man's relation to his universe, to acquaint students with those fundamental facts necessary for the proper interpretation of the phenomena manifested by the living things with which they are surrounded, and to lay a broad foundation for specialization in universities in professional courses in biology.

Those completing the courses will be well prepared for the work in medical schools, schools for medical technologists, hospital schools for training of nurses, for graduate work in colleges and universities, for teaching the biological sciences in high schools, and for assistantships in university and experiment station laboratories in the departments of agriculture and the United States Biological Survey.

For outline of complete Pre-Medical Course, see page 55.

Major: Biology 18 and any additional courses of higher number, including laboratory work, in the department, amounting to twenty-four semester hours.

Minor: Biology 18 and ten semester hours from courses of higher number in the department.

Those preparing to teach biology should take Biology 18, 28a, 28b, 38a, 38b, and as many additional courses as their elective hours will permit.

12a-12b. General Biology (Cultural). Mr. Light and Mr. Bollinger
Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three class periods and two hours laboratory work each week.

This course is designed primarily for those students who do not intend to major in the sciences. The cultural value of all the sciences is stressed, with the greater emphasis on the biological sciences. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

18a-18b. General Biology (Professional).

Mr. Light

Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three hours class work and four hours laboratory work each week.

Required of all science students who are preparing to enter medical schools or other lines of professional biological work. In this course representative forms of plant life are studied the first semester and representative forms of animal life the second semester. Structure, and biological laws and principles are stressed. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

21. Microbiology.

Mr. Snyder

Four hours. First semester.

Two class periods and four hours laboratory work each week.

This course deals with the biology of bacteria, molds, yeasts, rickettsias, and viruses, including laboratory technique in sterilization and in methods of cultivating, isolating, and staining bacteria.

Required of those preparing for medical technology. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

22. Genetics.

Mr. Light

Four hours. Second semester. Offered 1954-1955.

Three class periods and two hours laboratory work each week.

This course deals with the mechanism and laws of heredity and variation, and their practical applications. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

23. Entomology.

Mr. Light

Four hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

Two class periods and four hours laboratory work each week.

This course is designed to acquaint the student with the various orders of insects, their characteristics and life histories, and includes a study of their economic importance. Field trips and a carefully prepared collection of insects are supplementary to the classroom work. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

28a-28b. Botany.

Mr. Bollinger

Four hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1954-1955.

Three class periods and four hours field and laboratory work each week.

The object of the course is to give the student a general knowledge of the plant kingdom. One or more types of each of the classes of algae, fungus, liverworts, mosses, ferns, and seed plants are studied.

Special attention is given to the phylogeny and ontogeny of the several groups, and constant comparisons are made of those structures indicating relationships. The principles of classification are learned by the identification of about one hundred and fifty species of plants represented in the local fall and spring flora. These studies are conducted in the field so that the plants are seen as dynamic forces adapted to their environment. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

CATALOGUE

- 31. Vertebrate Embryology. Mr. Snyder
Four hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.
Two class periods and six hours laboratory work each week.
This course consists of a survey of the principles of development, with laboratory work on the frog, chick, and pig.
Recommended to those preparing for medicine, medical technology, and nursing and for biology majors. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.
- 32. Animal Physiology. Mr. Snyder
Four hours. Second semester.
Two class periods and four hours laboratory work each week.
This course presents the basic concepts of physiology, with special reference to man.
Recommended to those preparing for medicine. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.
- 33. Introduction to Forestry. Mr. Bollinger
Four hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.
Two class periods and four hours of laboratory work each week.
In this course the student is taught to identify the common trees and shrubs. Special attention is given to their ecological importance also the importance of forest products such as fruits, wood, paper, resins as well as the distribution of trees in the United States. A collection of seeds and leaves when possible will be required of the various species studied. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.
- 34. Plant Physiology. Mr. Bollinger
Four hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.
Two class periods and four hours of laboratory work each week.
A course designed to acquaint the student with the various functions of parts of plants. It includes lectures and experimental work on the processes of photosynthesis, nutrition, respiration, growth, the role of hormones, digestion, absorption, etc. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.
- 38a-38b. Zoology. Mr. Light
Four hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954.
Three lectures or recitations and four hours each week of laboratory or field work.
The course is intended to acquaint the student with the structure, life history, and behavior of representatives of each phylum of animals. In the study of types, structure, function, and adaptation are given equal emphasis. The principles of phylogeny and ontogeny are considered.
The laboratory and class work is supplemented by field studies including observations of habits, ecological conditions, and the use of keys for identification and classification. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.
- 42. Parasitology. Mr. Snyder
Two hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.
Two lectures and demonstrations each week with ample use of suitable audio-visual teaching aids.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

This course deals with the morphology and physiology of animal parasites and their relationships to history, to society, and to the individual.

Recommended for students preparing for medicine and for biology majors. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

44. Biological Problems.

Staff

Credit hours and time adjusted to the problem assigned.

Laboratory work with conferences.

This course is open to a limited number of students majoring in biology who have made a distinguished record in their previous courses. It consists in working out problems assigned to them involving a practical application of various methods of technique, originality of method and interpretation, and the development of the spirit of research. A weekly conference and report on the progress of the work will be required, and a detailed report including complete records of the work done must be presented before semester examinations. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

45. Vertebrate Histology and Microtechnique.

Mr. Snyder

Four hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

Two class periods and six hours laboratory work each week.

This course deals with the cells, tissues, and organ systems of the vertebrate body, with special reference to the mammal, together with modern microtechnical procedures.

Recommended to those preparing for medicine and medical technology and to biology majors. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

48a-48b. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy.

Mr. Snyder

Four hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1954-1955.

Two class periods and six hours laboratory work each week.

This is a comprehensive course on chordates, with emphasis on comparative morphology and progressive differentiation of the various organ systems.

The laboratory work includes dissection of amphioxus, the lamprey, the spiny dogfish, the haddock skull, necturus, the turtle, the pigeon, and the cat.

Recommended for those preparing for medicine, medical technology, and nursing, and for biology majors. Laboratory fee $10.00 per semester.

49a-49b. Materials and Techniques for the Biology Teacher.

Mr. Light

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954.

Two class or laboratory periods each week.

In the first semester this course is designed to acquaint students of the sciences with methods of obtaining, preparing, and preserving all kinds of biological materials, various types of tests and devices used in teaching, sources of equipment, lists of books and periodicals useful to science students and teachers, and the making of charts and models.

In the second semester will be studied the fundamentals of taxidermy, the preparation of skeletons, photography and lantern-slide making. Laboratory fee $4.00 per semester.

CHEMISTRY

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NEIDIG,

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR AMELL, AND MR. SCHNEIDER

The department of chemistry provides the students of liberal arts, who study chemistry as an elective subject, with an appreciation of the methods and techniques employed by the chemist. In addition, the impact of physical science upon modern civilization is emphasized in an attempt to show the student how chemistry fits into the mechanism of everyday life.

Students majoring in chemistry are rigorously schooled in the techniques and principles of modern chemistry. Coupled with a liberal arts education, such training prepares the student for a successful life both as a citizen and a scientist. Pre-medical and pre-dental students majoring in chemistry follow a curriculum especially designed to meet the requirements of the best medical and dental schools. The department provides students interested in the teaching profession an opportunity to engage in a program which includes not only the study of chemistry but also various techniques of teaching chemistry. In addition adequate training is provided for those students who are interested either in industrial work or advanced study in chemistry.

For outline of complete Pre-Medical Course, see page 55.

For outline of course leading to the degree of B.S. in Chemistry, see page 49.

Requirements for Major: Chemistry 10, 21, 22 and 40 or 43.

Requirements for Minor: Chemistry 10 and 8 additional hours in chemistry.

Requirements for B.S. in Chemistry: Chemistry 10, 21, 22, 30, 40 and 8 additional hours in chemistry.

10. General Inorganic Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis. Staff

Five hours. Throughout the year.

First semester four class hours and four hours laboratory per week. Second semester three class hours and eight hours laboratory per week. The first semester covers fundamental chemical principles and the study of non-metallic elements. The second semester is devoted to the micro separation and identification of cations and anions. Included in this study is the chemistry of metals and metallic ions as well as the theory of separation of cations. Laboratory Fee: $12.00 per semester. Breakage deposit: $5.00.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

11a-11b. General Inorganic Chemistry (Non-science students). Staff Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three class hours and two hours laboratory per week. The aims of this course are to promote some degree of appreciation for the influence of scientific advancement on social trends, to present the methods of analysis and synthesis of experimental findings in logical order to admit a conclusion by the student, to present a sufficient amount of knowledge to enable the student, as a citizen, to evaluate relative importance and significance of recent and future developments of physical science, and to demonstrate to the non-scientist a logical process of critical examination of facts and the drawing of justifiable conclusions which is applicable in making analyses in other disciplines. Laboratory Fee: $12.00 per semester. Breakage Deposit: $5.00.

21. Quantitative Inorganic Analysis. Mr. Schneider Four hours. Second semester.

Two class hours and eight hours laboratory per week. A coverage of the fundamentals of gravimetric, volumetric and colorimetric analysis. The presentation of the theory of quantitative analytical procedures.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 10. Laboratory Fee: $12.00. Breakage Deposit: $5.00.

22. Organic Chemistry. Mr. Neidig Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three class hours and four hours laboratory per week. A study of the preparation, chemical behavior and industrial use of aliphatic and aromatic compounds.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 10. Laboratory Fee: $12.00 per semester. Breakage Deposit: $10.00.

30. Advanced Quantitative Analysis. Mr. Amell Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

One class hour and 8 (eight) hours laboratory per week. The study of the methods employed for the sampling and analysis of industrially important materials. The use of modern analytical instruments is illustrated in this course. The techniques involved include polarography, chromatography, spectrophotometry, polarimetry, spectrography, and potentiometry.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 21. Laboratory Fee: $12.00. Breakage Deposit: $5.00.

31. Qualitative Organic Analysis. Mr. Neidig Three hours. Second semester. 1953-1954.

One class hour and eight hours laboratory per week. This course is concerned with the principles and methods of organic analysis. The laboratory work includes the identification of organic compounds, the separation of mixtures and the interpretation of laboratory data.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 22. Laboratory Fee: $12.00. Breakage Fee: $5.00.

34. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

Three class hours per week. A study of the elements based upon the periodic table including a presentation of modern concepts of atomic and molecular structure.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 21.

35a-35b. Laboratory Techniques.

One or two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1954-1955.

A course designed to introduce the student to advanced laboratory methods by the preparation and analysis of inorganic and organic compounds. Laboratory Fee: $16.00 per semester. Breakage Fee: $10.00.

40. Physical Chemistry.

Mr. Amell

Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three class hours and four hours laboratory per week. This course is concerned primarily with the rigorous approach to chemical principles. The use of physico-chemical methods is emphasized in the laboratory.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 21 and 22, Physics 20 and Mathematics 34. Laboratory Fee: $12.00 per semester. Breakage Fee: $6.00.

41. Advanced Organic Chemistry.

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1954-1955.

Two class hours and four hours laboratory per week. A study of the preparation and reactions of multi-functional, heterocyclic and alicyclic compounds including a fundamental approach to reaction mechanisms. Laboratory Fee: $12.00. Breakage Fee: $10.00.

43a-43b. Physical Bio-Chemistry.

Mr. Amell

Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three class hours and four hours laboratory per week. A course designed especially for pre-medical, biology and biochemistry students to present the physical chemistry of living systems.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 22. Laboratory Fee: $12.00 per semester. Breakage Fee: $6.00.

44a-44b. Special Problems.

Mr. Neidig and Mr. Amell

One or two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954.

Intensive library and laboratory study of topics of special interest to advanced students in the major fields of chemistry. Laboratory Fee: $16.00 per semester. Breakage Fee: $10.00.

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR RILEY, ASSISTANT PROFESSORS EGLI AND FOX

The department aims to give students majoring in Economics and Business a thorough training in the essential principles of business and economics and at the same time to offer sufficient electives to provide students preparing for a business career, the teaching profession, law schools or graduate schools, with a general cultural education.

For an outline of the complete course in Economics and Business see page 50.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Major: Economics 20 and 23 and 18 additional hours in economics as approved by the adviser. (These additional hours should include Economics 35, 36, 40-2, 48.) Economics 20 is a prerequisite for all courses in Economics except 10, 11, 23, and 32.

Minor: Economics 20 and 12 additional hours in economics with the consent of the chairman of the Department of Economics and Business Administration.

ECONOMICS

10. Economic Geography.

Mr. Fox

Three hours. First semester.

The course deals with the field and function of economic geography; distribution of population; the earth; land forms; influence of soils; temperature; winds and ocean currents; climates of the world. Much of the course will deal with the more important commodities of the world's trade—their production, export, and import in the various countries of the world. Stress will be laid on the chief sources of raw materials and their industrial uses and the marketing and transportation problems connected therewith.

11. Introduction to American Business and Industry.

Mr. Fox

Three hours. Second semester.

This course presents an understanding of our present business set-up. It makes an analysis of our business system as a whole and of its various divisions, and presents business in its relations to the broader aspects of our national life. It provides a background for the more specialized business courses that follow. The course is valuable to all students, whether or not they are majoring in business.

20. Principles of Economics.

Mr. Fox and Mr. Riley

Three hours. Throughout the year.

An introductory course in Economics designed to explain the fundamental principles of underlying economic theory. It treats on the subject matter of economics: productive enterprise; income and consumption; value theories; money and prices; functional and institutional distribution of wealth and income; foreign exchange; international economic relations. Prerequisite for courses of a higher number within the Department of Economics.

23. Principles of Accounting.

Four hours. Throughout the year.

A course in accounting principles and their application in business to single proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations. Books of original entry; accounts; financial statements; columnar books; controlling accounts; departmental accounting; the voucher system; partnership and corporation accounting; elements of cost and manufacturing accounting; agencies and branches; consolidations and mergers.

30. Intermediate Accounting.

Mr. Riley

Three hours. First semester, in alternate years. Offered 1954-1955.

Continued study of the general principles and practices of accounting combined with application of these principles to institutional, governmental, and managerial accounting. Problems of system installations and accounting for taxation and the preparation and interpretation of statements and reports are also studied.

CATALOGUE

Prerequisite: Accounting 23.

31. Advanced Accounting.

Mr. Riley

Three hours. Second semester, in alternate years. Offered 1954-1955.

A survey of American History from the earliest settlements to the Truman Administration. Special attention is given to the history of the colony and state of Pennsylvania. This course is designed to fulfill the state requirements for United States and Pennsylvania history.

27. Diplomatic History of the United States.

Mr. Fehr

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954. This course will alternate with History 37.

A survey of the foreign relations of the United States since its inception as a nation. Emphasis is placed on the development of notable foreign policies and their effect on American life, the relation of the nation with specific areas, the influence of personalities in the field of diplomacy, the effect of domestic conditions upon foreign relations, and the current international position of the United States.

29a-29b. Economic History of the United States.

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1954-1955. This course will alternate with History 38.

A study of the economic background of American History, including the growth of American agriculture and industrial interests, from colonial beginnings to their present day development.

31. Europe from 1815 to 1914.

Mr. Shay

Three hours. First semester.

Nineteenth century Europe from the Congress of Vienna to the outbreak of World War I.

32. Europe from 1914 to the Present.

Mr. Shay

Three hours. Second semester.

A study of World War I and World War II. Attention will be given to the problems involved in the post-war periods.

33. History of the Far East.

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955. This course and History 34 will alternate with History 36.

A study designed to acquaint the student with the social, political, economic, and cultural institutions of the Far East prior to 1500 and the subsequent changes growing out of contact with the Western World since that time. Special emphasis will be placed upon the trends since 1500; and particular attention will be devoted to the emergence of Japan from isolation and her development as a world power; the reformation and revolution in China, and her struggle for unity; and the rise of nationalism in Southeastern Asia.

34. History of Russia.

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1954-1955. This course and History 33 will alternate with History 36.

A study of the history of Russia from ancient times to the present. Special attention will be given to the late seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth centuries; to the Revolutions of 1905 and 1917; and to the period of communist control.

36. History of England and the British Empire.

Mr. Shay

Three hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954. This course will alternate with History 33 and History 34.

A survey of the history of England and the Empire from earliest times to the present.

37. The History of the Middle East.

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1954-1955. This course will alternate with History 27.

A study of the development of the countries of the Middle East with emphasis on events of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the significance of such happenings in world affairs. Attention is paid to the relations between Europe, the Americas, and the Middle East during the rise and decline of the Ottoman power, western imperialism in the Middle East, and the strategic and economic importance of the area in international affairs.

38. History of Latin America.

Mr. Shay

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954. This course will alternate with History 29a-29b.

A survey of the political and cultural development of the Latin American Republics. The period of independence, internal development, and relations with the United States will be emphasized.

42a-42b. American Biography.

Mr. Fehr

One hour. Throughout the year.

A study of the achievements of American men and women who typify important social and political trends. For the year 1951-1952 the selections will be made from the period 1865-1900.

43. History of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Laughlin

Three hours. First semester.

A study of the political and social history of Pennsylvania with special emphasis on the different types of settlers and on the contribution of the Commonwealth to the history of the nation.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

44. Source Problems in American History. Mrs. Laughlin
Two hours. Throughout the year. Open only to History majors, except by special permission.

A course designed to acquaint the student with the use of source material and methods of historical research.

Methods of Teaching History. See Education 49.

Social Studies 30. See page 64.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Major: In addition to Social Studies 30, majors will take Political Science 10a-10b, 20, 21, 30, 31, 32, 40, 41.

Minor: Political Science 10a-10b, 20, 21, 30, 32, three additional hours, Social Studies 30.

- 10a-10b. American Government and Politics. Mr. Fehr
Three hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954.

An introduction to the study of government in the United States. A study of the relationships which exist between municipal, state, and national government, a comparison of the governmental powers exercised by each of these units, and a consideration of the institutions through which these functions are exercised. Some attention is devoted to current world affairs.

This course is a prerequisite, or a corequisite, to all other courses in the field except Contemporary World Affairs (Political Science 32).

20. Comparative Government.
Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

A comparative study of the important governmental systems of the world, both democratic and authoritarian. Comparison and contrasts are made between unitary and federal forms. Special study is made of the governmental system in force in the Soviet Union.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

21. Foreign Relations.
Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1954-1955.

The study of the history and development of the foreign policy of the United States constitutes the background of the course. Special emphasis is placed on contemporary world politics and on the current position of our nation in international relations.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

30. Political Parties in the United States.
Three hours. First semester. Offered 1955-1956.

A study of the history and origins of political parties, their organization, development, and methods of operation, leaders, machines and bosses, campaigns and platforms.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

CATALOGUE

31. American Constitutional Government.

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1955-1956.

A study of the growth and development of the Constitution through the medium of judicial construction. Recent decisions illustrating its application to new conditions of the present age, and proposals for court modification, are given particular attention.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

32. Contemporary World Affairs.

Mr. Fehr

Two hours. First or second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

The purpose of this one-semester course is to acquaint students with current developments in the field of public affairs, literature, science, religion, music, drama, art. Students are instructed in procedures useful in evaluation of material received through various media of communication, such as publications, motion pictures, radio. Instructors from the departments concerned cooperate in teaching the course. No prerequisite required.

40. Political Theory.

Mr. Fehr

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

A survey of the different philosophies and theories of government, ancient and modern, with special reference to political philosophy since the sixteenth century.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

41. International Politics.

Mr. Fehr

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

This course is designed to acquaint students with the origin, forms, dynamics, prospects of the international political pattern. Special emphasis is placed on current developments and changing concepts in world politics.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

MATHEMATICS

PROFESSOR GRIMM AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GILMORE

The Department of Mathematics has the following aims:

1. To enable the students to feel and to enjoy the beauty of intellectual honesty and to create in them the desire and the habit of controlling their thought processes and of mastering the art of clear thinking;

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

2. to convey to them, and in particular to the students majoring in mathematics, a thorough understanding and a good knowledge of the ideas and the technique of mathematics and to give them desirable and useful mathematical skills, according to their requirements and within the growing limits of their abilities;
3. to enable the students who will use mathematics as a tool to apply it to other fields.

Major: Courses 20, 33, 34, 35, 36, 40 and six additional hours of mathematics.

Minor: Courses 20, 33, 34 and four additional hours of mathematics.

NOTE: Students majoring in mathematics are required to take Physics 20 and 21, in addition to the required courses in mathematics.

A major in mathematics may lead to either the B.S. or A.B. degree. If the B.S. is desired, the candidate must take the general requirements for the degree (see page 47), and must select as his minor either biology, chemistry, or physics.

If the A.B. is desired, the candidate must take the general requirements for that degree (see page 47), and may take his minor in any department other than those named in the preceding paragraph.

Those preparing to teach mathematics should take Mathematics 13, 14, 20, 33, 34, and at least 3 additional hours of advanced work.

13. College Algebra.

Three hours. First semester.

Minimum contents: Factoring, fractions, exponents and radicals, logarithms, linear and simultaneous linear equations, quadratic equations, systems of quadratic equations.

14. Plane Trigonometry.

Three hours. Second semester.

Definitions of trigonometric functions, right and oblique triangles, computation of distances and heights, development of trigonometric formulae, and DeMoivre's theorem.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 or its equivalent.

19. Mathematics of Finance.

Mr. Gilmore

Three hours. Second semester.

The course seeks to present the mathematical principles and operations used in financial work. A detailed study of compound interest, compound discount, and annuities is undertaken. Application of these principles is then made to practical problems of amortization, sinking funds, depreciation, valuations of bonds, and building and loan associations.

CATALOGUE

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13.

20. Analytic Geometry.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

The equations of the straight line, circle, ellipse, parabola and hyperbola are studied, numerous examples are solved, and as much of the higher plane curves and of the geometry of space is covered as time will permit.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 and 14, or sufficient high school preparation.

22. Elementary Mathematical Statistics.

Mr. Gilmore

Three hours. Second semester.

Covering graphic representations, averages, dispersion, skewness, correlation, curve fitting, normal probability curve, index number, involving problems in social sciences, business administration, and natural sciences.

Prerequisite: Consent of Instructor.

28. Advanced College Algebra.

Three hours. First semester.

Covering mathematical induction, arithmetic and geometric progressions, permutations, combinations, probability, complex numbers, and additional material.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 and 14, or sufficient high school preparation.

33. Differential Calculus.

Four hours. First semester.

The concepts of limit and derivative, differentiation of algebraic and transcendental functions, maxima and minima, rates.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 20 or 18.

34. Integral Calculus.

Four hours. Second semester.

Formal integration rules and applications, constant of integration, the definite integral with applications to surfaces, volumes, work, and centroid, multiple integration, and some partial derivatives.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 33.

35. Advanced Calculus.

Three hours. First semester.

Review of differential and integral calculus with further investigations of multiple integration, partial derivatives, hyperbolic functions, expansion of series.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 34.

36. Theory of Equations.

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

Introduces the student to the basic theory of equations concerning roots and their properties, limits to the roots, solutions by radicals of cubical and quartic equations, number of real roots, numerical solution of equations by Horner's and Newton's methods, symmetric functions, and to the theory of determinants and matrices.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Prerequisite: Mathematics 20.

40. Differential Equations.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

A course in the elements of differential equations.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 33, 34.

41. Survey of Mathematics.

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954.

A course designed to show the relationship among various important fields of mathematics, and to provide an introduction to selected topics in modern mathematics. Both a terminal course in undergraduate mathematics, especially for future mathematics teachers, and a presentation of a clarified picture of the field of mathematics preparatory for graduate work. Prerequisite: Mathematics 36 and 40, or permission of the head of the department.

42. Higher Geometry.

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

An introduction to the more advanced parts of geometry, as higher Euclidean geometry including four and n-dimensional geometry, non-Euclidean geometries including projective geometry, and the foundations of geometry (axiomatics). May be taken only with the approval of the head of the department.

44. Vector Analysis.

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1954-1955.

A first course in vector analysis with application to geometry and physics.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 33 and 34.

46. Analytical Mechanics.

Mr. Grimm

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1954-1955.

Resolution of force, two and three force pieces, center of gravity, acceleration, moment of inertia, friction.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 33, 34 and Physics 20, 21.

48. Introduction to Abstract Algebra.

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

An introduction to modern algebraic concepts and ideas dealing with integral domains, fields, rings, and ideals. This course emphasizes the axiomatic approach to the subject, and also gives an introduction to the theory of numbers and to abstract mathematical logic. May be taken only with the approval of the head of the department.

49. Group Theory (Abstract Algebra II).

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1954-1955.

This course deals with the elementary theory of finite groups and their applications in pure mathematics, geometry, physics and natural sciences.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 48.

MUSIC

PROFESSORS GILLESPIE, RUTLEDGE, BENDER; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR STACHOW; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS SMITH, LECARPENTIER

Music is recognized as having a proper place in a liberal education. Three types of participants are necessary to create a concert: composer, performer, listener. The following courses, available to students in the liberal arts, are intended primarily to promote the appreciation of music and furnish the intelligent listener.

Major: See The Conservatory of Music, page 107.

Minor: Twenty semester hours, of which at least four hours must be in applied music. The selection of courses must be supervised and approved by the Music Department adviser.

Courses must be selected from the following: Sight Reading 10, 11, 20; Ear Training 10, 11, 20; Harmony 10, 11, 20, 22, 30, 40, 43 (Arranging and Scoring for the Modern Orchestra); History and Appreciation of Music, 30, 31; Festivals and Pageants 30; Conducting 20, 30, 40; College Chorus. For description of courses see pages 109-118.

The above courses may be taken as electives for credit toward any degree conferred by the college.

Courses in applied music will not be credited toward any degree except the Bachelor of Science with a major in Music Education unless they are taken as part of a full major or minor in music.

N.B. No student may receive credit for chorus more than one year.

ORIENTATION

11. Freshman Orientation. See page 31.

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR EHRHART

Philosophy is man's quest for universal knowledge both about the world in which he lives and about himself, understood in their broadest and deepest relationships. The method of philosophy is free and open inquiry. Its goal and purpose is the increase of wisdom among men.

Major: Philosophy 10, 11, 20a-20b, 35a-35b and six additional semester hours. Two hours credit in Humanities 20 is transferable to a Philosophy major.

Minor: Philosophy 10, 11, 20a-20b, 35a-35b.

10. Introduction to Philosophy.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. First semester.

This course is intended to introduce beginners to the basic problems and theories of philosophy and quicken them to some appreciation of the role played by philosophy in the whole movement of civilization, while at the same time giving them at least an inkling of the work of the greatest thinkers and an opportunity to do some philosophizing of their own.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

11. Introduction to Logic.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. Second semester.

Introduction to the rules of clear and effective thinking, as well as those of exact communication and the logical use of language. Attention is given both to the classical syllogism of deductive logic, and inductive logic and scientific method. The aim of this course is primarily practical, with considerable use being made of exercises and problems.

20a. Ancient Philosophy.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

The aim in this course is to trace the rise of Western philosophy from its non-philosophical origin in Greek religion, through the teachings of Plato and Aristotle, and the Hellenistic philosophies of Stoicism and Epicureanism.

20b. Medieval Philosophy.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

This course continues the history of Western philosophical thought, tracing it through the thinking of the early Church Fathers, Neo-Platonism, and the Scholastic period of medieval philosophy.

30. Ethics.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

An inquiry into the major theories on the nature of the good and the good life for man; examination of the problems of moral relativism and moral freedom; and discussion of the practical problems of morality as they are encountered in personal, political, and economic life.

31. Philosophy of Religion.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. Second semester.

The purpose of this course is to inquire into the validity of religious knowledge, as evidence is available from the realms of nature, moral experience, aesthetic experience, religious experience, and history. The difficulties involved in religious belief are examined, with the aim of arriving at an adequate religious viewpoint.

35a. Modern Philosophy.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

In this course, which is the logical continuation of Philosophy 20a-20b, the changes brought about in philosophical thinking by the cultural and scientific renaissance are followed and a study made of philosophical developments from Bacon and Descartes through Kant.

35b. Recent and Contemporary Philosophy.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1954-1955.

Here the history of Western philosophy is brought down to the present, starting with the philosophy of Fichte and concluding with a study of the living philosophers as well as the outstanding contemporary schools of philosophy.

41. Aesthetics.

Mr. Ehrhart

Two hours. First semester. Offered 1952-1953.

A survey of the philosophy of the beautiful, the correlation of the same with the development of the fine arts, and a consideration of fundamental principles of criticism.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

See Health and Physical Education, page 84.

PHYSICS

PROFESSOR GRIMM

The Physics Department aims not only to provide its majors an introduction to the techniques and applications of physical science, but aims also to give students of Liberal Arts an insight into the behavior of non-living matter and to indicate the possible extent, as well as the limitations, of our knowledge of the physical universe.

Major: Physics 20, 21, 32, 33, 43, 45, Mathematics 46 and any eight additional hours.

Minor: Physics 20, 21 and any ten additional semester hours.

20. General College Physics.

Mr. Grimm

Three hours. Throughout the year.

Three hours lectures and recitations per week. This course will be a thorough investigation of the fundamental principles of physical science, and is especially intended as a preparation for advanced courses in Physics, and for those interested in the practical applications of physical laws and principles. When accompanied by Physics 21, it meets the minimum requirements of those who are candidates for the bachelor's degree in science and for admission to the Medical Schools.

21. General Physics Laboratory.

Mr. Grimm

Two hours. Throughout the year. One hour credit per semester.

Laboratory work associated with the subject matter of Physics 20. This course should accompany Physics 20. Laboratory fee: $10.00 per semester.

30. Mechanics.

Mr. Grimm

Three hours. First semester.

This course will be a thorough investigation of the mechanics of solids, liquids, gases, and sound. Prerequisite: Physics 20, 21.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

31. Mechanics Laboratory.

Mr. Grimm

Two hours. First semester.

Experimental work in precise measurements. Conventional experiments with momentum, rotation, and physical moduli of materials. Laboratory fee: $10.00.

32. Magnetism and Electricity.

Mr. Grimm

Three hours. First semester.

This course will be a thorough consideration of the laws of the electric and magnetic fields and the power applications of electricity as direct and low frequency alternating currents.

33. Electrical Measurements.

Mr. Grimm

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1952-1953. One hour credit per semester.

Measurements of potential, current, resistance, capacity, and inductance in the field of direct currents and of alternating currents at low and high frequencies. This course should accompany Physics 32 and 46, and may be divided into two parts. Laboratory fee: $10.00 per semester.

43. Light: Optics and Spectroscopy.

Mr. Grimm

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

This course will be concerned with the nature of light and its transmission through various media including reflection, refraction, and dispersion. Prerequisite: Physics 20, 21.

44. Optics Laboratory.

Mr. Grimm

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1953-1954.

Experimental work with reflection, refraction, and dispersion of light. This course should accompany Physics 43 and Physics 45. Laboratory fee: $10.00 per semester.

45. Modern Physics.

Mr. Grimm

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1952-1953.

An investigation of the application of physical principles to molecular, atomic, and electronic phenomena. Recent developments in nuclear physics.

46. High Frequency Alternating Currents.

Mr. Grimm

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

The generation of high frequency alternating currents and their application to radio transmission and its associated equipment.

47. Heat and Thermodynamics.

Mr. Grimm

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1952-1953.

The theory of heat, kinetic theory of gases, and the laws of thermodynamics.

PSYCHOLOGY

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS HARRIMAN AND DENT; PROFESSOR EHRHART

The courses offered by this department are designed (1) to promote the development of ethical, moral, and religious character by helping the student to make wholesome social adjustments; (2) to encourage in the student an awareness and appreciation of the environmental and biological bases of human behavior so that he may understand the application of psychological knowledge to contemporary social problems; (3) to provide such self-knowledge as may aid in the solution of personal problems related to life and work; and (4) to furnish a practical acquaintance with principles, methods, and techniques which are not only basic to graduate study and employment in psychology but also are beneficial in the many occupations where psychology is applied.

Major: Twenty-four hours, to include Psychology 20 and 35.

Minor: Eighteen hours, to include Psychology 20.

Note: Psychology 20 is prerequisite to all other courses offered by the department.

20. General Psychology.

Miss Dent

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

A beginning course in general psychology, designed to acquaint the student with psychological principles and their application in daily life.

21. Psychology of Childhood.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

A study of the psychological development of the child from the beginning of life to adolescence. Throughout the course emphasis is placed upon practical problems of child care and training. Topics considered include the development of proper physical and health habits, children's questions, religious and sex instruction, emotional and personality problems, problems of family life and relationships, behavior problems and discipline, and problems of school life and relationships. Laboratory fee of one dollar.

22. Mental Hygiene.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

A study of wholesome and effective personality adjustments, including the causes and treatment of the more common social and emotional maladjustments. Laboratory fee of one dollar.

23. Educational Psychology.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

A psychological study of the nature of the learner and the nature of the learning process. The course includes such topics as individual differences, motivation, emotion, and transfer of training.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

24. Personnel Psychology.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

A survey of types of personnel problems encountered in business and industry, and the techniques employed in meeting these problems. Psychometric methods used in the selection and classification of personnel and the application of psychology to worker efficiency are emphasized.

Laboratory fee of one dollar.

30. Applied Psychology.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

A survey of the applications of psychology to the various fields of human relations. Among the areas covered are vocational guidance, human adjustment, public opinion and propaganda, advertising methods, work and efficiency, and fatigue. Laboratory fee of two dollars.

31. Psychology of Adolescence.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

A study of the individual's development from childhood to maturity. Characteristic features of physical, intellectual, social, emotional, and moral and religious growth are considered in detail, with practical application to problems of educational, vocational, and heterosexual adjustment.

32. Abnormal Psychology.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

An introduction to the study of abnormal behavior, including such topics as hysteria, multiple personality, hypnosis, analysis of nervous and mental maladjustments, and a study of psychological processes as they occur in the more marked forms of derangement.

33. Social Psychology.

Mr. Harriman

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

A study of psychological facts and principles and their application to problems arising from the interaction of individuals and groups in modern society. The biological and social foundations of human behavior, factors influencing social adjustment and interaction, the main types of social institutions, and major areas of social conflict are considered with a view to the formulation of concrete solutions to selected problems of major concern.

34. Psychology of Religion.

Mr. Ehrhart

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1954-1955.

The growth of religion in the life of the individual is subject to certain psychological laws. This course seeks to acquaint the student with such laws for use in facilitating religious growth.

35. Experimental Psychology.

Miss Dent

Three hours. Second semester. Required of all students with a Major in psychology.

This course introduces the student to the most important methods and techniques of research in psychology and to a number of the notable experiments in the field. Throughout the course the requirements of scientific method and the principle of "learning by doing" are emphasized. Laboratory fee of five dollars.

40. Systematic Psychology.

Miss Dent

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1953-1954.

A survey of the major contemporary schools of thought in psychology. The schools studied include functionalism, structuralism, associationism and connectionism, behaviorism, dynamic psychology, Gestalt psychology, psychoanalysis and related schools, purposivism, and organismic and personalistic psychology.

41. Introduction to Clinical Psychology.

Miss Dent

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

This course is designed to acquaint the student with the major types of educational and behavior problems, and with the most important techniques of individual diagnosis and treatment currently employed. Widely used individual tests and scales and projective techniques are presented, and various psychotherapeutic methods are briefly considered. Laboratory fee of three dollars.

42. Mental Tests and Measurements.

Miss Dent

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1953-1954.

This course will acquaint students with the general theory underlying intelligence testing, and will afford practice in the giving of individual intelligence tests of both the verbal and the performance type. Emphasis will be placed, however, upon the administration of the Revised Stanford-Binet Tests of Intelligence and the Wechsler-Bellevue Intelligence Scale. Students will be held responsible for achieving some proficiency in the use of these tests. Laboratory fee of five dollars.

RELIGION

PROFESSORS RICHIE, EHRHART, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SPARKS

The aim of this department is to provide opportunity for the study of our religious and moral heritage from ancient cultures and, in particular, from that which gave birth to the Judaeo-Christian tradition.

Through courses, both elective and required, the department seeks to orient the student to a Christian world view. It strives toward an appreciation and understanding of the Holy Scriptures and the heritage of the Christian Church, the cultivation of skills for practical service in a local church or community, and the undergirding of Christian living as a normal and dynamic experience.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Professionally, basic foundations are offered to those students who are in preparation for the Christian ministry, the World Mission field, the teaching of Religion, and other Church vocations.

Major: Religion 10a-10b, 11a-11b, 32, Philosophy 31, Psychology 34 and eight additional semester hours.

Minor: Religion 10a-10b, 11a-11b, 20, 30, 32 and four additional semester hours.

10a-10b. Introduction to English Bible.

Mr. Sparks

Two hours. Throughout the year. This course or Religion 11a-11b required of all college freshmen.

An appreciative and historical survey of the literature of the Old and New Testaments.

11a-11b. Introduction to Religion.

Mr. Sparks

Two hours. Throughout the year. This course or Religion 10a-10b is required of all college freshmen.

The purpose of this course is to acquaint the student with the place and significance of religion—what it is and does. Included are studies in the nature of God, the worth of man, science and religion, personal religious living, the Judaeo-Christian tradition as found in the Old and New Testaments, the place of the Church in our modern life, and contemporary problems in the field of religion.

Summer School, Extension, and Evening Courses

Through summer sessions, extension classes, and evening classes, Lebanon Valley College has for many years enabled teachers, state employees, and others in active employment to attend college courses and secure academic degrees. By a careful selection of courses made in consultation with the heads of departments in the College, a student can meet the course and residence requirements for a baccalaureate degree.

Students in regular attendance may, by taking summer school courses, meet the requirements for the bachelor's degree in three years.

Courses in the following subjects will be offered in the Summer School of 1953, and in extension and evening classes in 1953-1954: Biology, Economics and Business, Chemistry, Education, English, French, German, History, Mathematics, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Sociology, and Spanish.

Extension classes are offered in the Central School Building, 6th and Woodbine Streets, Harrisburg, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

Extension and evening classes will begin during the week of September 21, 1953.

For details pertaining to Summer School, Extension and Evening Courses, write to Professor D. Clark Carmean.

In 1953 Summer School will begin on June 8, and will consist of two sessions, of six weeks each, the first ending July 17, and the second August 28.

A course in Student Teaching, S-40, will be offered in the 1953 Summer Session at Hershey, Pennsylvania. This course is designed to meet the minimum requirements for Pennsylvania certification in secondary public school teaching. June 8-July 17.

11. Sight Singing. Miss Gillespie
Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

Sight Singing 11 covers the work equivalent to grades 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the public school.

20. Sight Singing. Miss Gillespie
Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

A continuation with exercises and songs of increasing difficulty, both tonal and rhythmic. Study and application of tempo, dynamic and interpretative markings.

Speed and accuracy are expected. New material is constantly used, resulting in an extensive survey of song material.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Dictation (Ear Training) Courses

10. Ear Training. Mrs. Bender
Three hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

A study of tone and rhythm integrated with Sight Singing 10 and Harmony 10, including the writing of intervals, melodies, and chord progressions as dictated from the piano.

11. Ear Training. Mrs. Bender
Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

A continuation of the study of tone, rhythm, and intervals. A considerable portion of the time is devoted to the development of harmonic dictation.

20. Ear Training. Mrs. Bender
Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

A study of the more difficult tonal problems and complicated rhythms. Chromatic dictation correlated with chromatic harmony.

Designed to develop ability to recognize and write chord progressions, including modulation, and altered chords.

Harmony Courses

10. Harmony. Mrs. Lecarpentier
Three hours per week, three semester hours credit. First semester.

A study of the rudiments of music, including notation, scales, intervals, and triads; the connection of triads by harmonizing melodies and basses with fundamental triads; playing of simple cadences at the piano; analysis of phrases and periods.

11. Harmony. Mrs. Lecarpentier
Three hours per week, three semester hours credit. Second semester.

Deals with inversions of triads, seventh and ninth chords, harmonizations of melodies and figured basses; analysis and composition of the smaller forms; modulation.

20. Harmony (Chromatic Harmony). Mrs. Lecarpentier
Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

The use of dominant and diminished sevenths as embellishments of and substitutes for diatonic harmony; harmonization of melodies and figured basses; analysis of two and three part song forms; composition in two part song form. Playing of more advanced cadences and modulations at the piano.

22. Harmony (Scoring for the Band). Mr. Stachow
Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

Study of instrumentation, devices, techniques and mechanics of scoring transcriptions, arrangements and solos for concert band, special work in scoring for marching band. Laboratory analysis and demonstration of various instrumental colors and combinations. Emphasis will be placed on creative scoring and original work for band.

CATALOGUE

30. Harmony (Keyboard). Mrs. Bender

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

Harmonization at the piano of melodies, both with four part harmony and accompaniment; transposition; modulation; improvisation.

V. Musical Organizations

College Band.

Mr. Rutledge

Two hours per week throughout the year.

Lebanon Valley College maintains a uniformed band, the membership of which is made up of college and conservatory students. The band contributes to college life by playing at football games, by appearing on several programs during the year, and by providing the musical accompaniment for the annual May Day Fête. During the spring several concerts are given in various cities of this section of the state. Membership in the band is determined by an applicant's ability on his instrument and by the needs of the band with respect to maintaining a well-balanced instrumentation.

Girls' Band.

Mr. Rutledge

One hour per week throughout the year.

This organization is open to girls of the Conservatory and College alike. Membership in this band is determined by the applicant's ability on her instrument, and by the needs of the band with respect to maintaining a well-balanced instrumentation. The group will participate in a spring concert.

Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Rutledge

Two hours per week throughout the year.

The Lebanon Valley College Symphony Orchestra is a musical organization of symphonic proportions. Open alike to advanced players from the college and the conservatory, the orchestra adheres to a high standard of performance. Throughout the school year a professional interpretation of a wide range of standard orchestral literature is insisted upon.

College Orchestra.

Mr. Rutledge

One hour per week throughout the year.

The College Orchestra is open to all members of the Conservatory and of the College who are sufficiently qualified to belong to this organization.

Cadet Band and Orchestra.

Mr. Stachow, Mrs. Lecarpentier

One hour per week throughout the year.

A training band and orchestra wherein students play secondary instruments and become acquainted with elementary band and orchestra literature. Opportunity will be given for advanced conducting students to conduct these organizations.

Junior Orchestra.

Mr. Stachow, Mrs. Lecarpentier

One hour per week throughout the year.

Students of the elementary and advanced instrumental classes are given an opportunity to play their instruments in the Junior Orchestra, thus gaining a type of valuable ensemble experience not possible to attain in the instrumental classes.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Glee Club.

Mr. Rutledge

Two hours per week throughout the year.

The Glee Club is a mixed chorus of selected voices. The personnel of the organization, while open to all L. V. C. students, is limited to forty members. During the spring the Club appears in concerts in several communities throughout this section of the state. Choral literature of the highest type is studied intensively.

College Chorus.

Mr. Rutledge

One hour per week throughout the year.

The mixed chorus is open to all on the campus who are interested in this type of musical performance and who have had some experience in singing.

Instrumental Ensembles.

In addition to the larger musical organizations there is additional opportunity for advanced players to try out for such ensembles as:

- |                       |                   |

VIII. Individual Instruction

Voice, Piano, Organ, Chorus, Orchestral and Band Instruments.

The work in the foregoing fields will be organized from the standpoint of the development of musicianship in the individual student. The work continues through eight semesters and assures a well-rounded and many-sided acquaintance with various musical techniques.

Private instruction is provided in Applied Music (Piano, Voice, Organ, Violin, and all instruments of orchestra and band).

Piano: Mrs. Bender, Mr. Fairlamb, Miss Stagg, Miss Muehling.

Voice: Mr. Crawford, Mr. Rovers.

Organ: Mr. Campbell.

Violin: Mr. Malsh.

Brass: Mr. Rutledge.

Viola, 'Cello, and String Bass: Mrs. Lecarpentier.

Woodwind: Mr. Stachow.

IX. Preparatory Department

The Conservatory of Music sponsors a Preparatory Department especially adapted to children of elementary or high school age.

This Preparatory Department offers either private or class instruction in piano and all instruments of the band and orchestra. A desirable number for class instruction is from four to six members.

THE STUDENT RECITALS

The student evening recitals are of inestimable value to all students in acquainting them with a wide range of the best musical literature, in developing musical taste and discrimination, in affording young musicians experience in appearing before an audience, and in gaining self-reliance as well as nerve control and stage demeanor.

Students in all grades appear on the programs of these recitals.

FEES

A Matriculation Fee of five dollars must be paid by all full-time students who are entering the College or Conservatory for the first time. This fee should accompany the application for admission. If a student's application is not accepted, the fee will be returned.

All students not enrolled in regular College or Conservatory Courses will be required to pay a matriculation fee of one dollar, once in each school year.

CATALOGUE

The rate for the Music Education Teachers' and Supervisors' Course is $485 per year for tuition, and also a fee of $35 for student activities.

The Music Education Teachers' and Supervisors' Course includes two private lessons per week, the use of a practice room two hours daily for practice, and theoretical and college courses not exceeding a total of seventeen semester hours each semester.

Extra hours in theoretical and college courses will be charged at the rate of $15.00 per semester hour. Since fractional hours of credit are granted for certain courses in the music school, the charge for such credits will be the proportionate amount of $15.00 such as $5.00 for one-third credit hour.

Private Lessons

The rate per semester, one lesson per week, is $35.00.

The rate per semester, one class lesson per week in the Preparatory Department, is $17.50.
